

1. It is encouraged and expected that all informal avenues will be exhausted through the Chair or Deputy Chair of the Faculty Research Ethics Committee (FREC) concerned. If those people are conflicted, it will be referred to the Chair of University Research Ethics Committee (UREC). If all are conflicted, the appeal will be referred to the Head of Governance Services.
2. u
3. An appeal can only be made on the following grounds:
  - i) There were procedural irregularities in the review process where the Committee may not have reached the same conclusion had these not occurred
  - ii) There is

