

TABLE OF MODULE HOURS. This table applies to both Standard and FDL delivery modes

Associate College Programme Documents must adhere to the categories of activities stipulated here in the breakdown of teaching and learning hours per module, and the summary table given below should also be provided. The activities may be undertaken via face-to-face and/or through electronic methods, and this distinction should be made in the explanation of the delivery of the programme in the Programme Document. Note: these activities do not include time spent on programme-level guidance and support.
